

Handout - Personal Narratives from the Harlem Renaissance

Select and read one of the personal narrative handouts. Then, fill out the template on this page. If there is time, read another narrative and create a similar template on a blank sheet of paper.

The personal narrative I read was: _____

My summary of the personal narrative is as follows:

Beginning: _____

Middle: _____

End: _____

A detail I remember most about the narrative is _____

The reason I remember this detail is because _____

The most interesting part of the personal narrative for me was _____

The least interesting part of the personal narrative for me was _____

I felt a sense of connection (or disconnection) to the author in the following ways:

The mood I felt this piece was portraying was _____

This personal narrative connects to the ideas of the Harlem Renaissance in the following ways: _____
