

Musical Event as Protest

Name _____

1. What is the current issue or problem your event will address?

2. Brainstorm a list of reasons why this issue is important and why others should be made aware of it. Include background and examples.

What type of event will it be (a concert, a march, or something else?) and why did you choose that format?

Which artists (musicians or otherwise) would you invite and why?

How do you think this event will benefit your cause?