Music Review: Grunge

Names_____

Paragraph 1: Describe the music and performance

What does the music sound like? What earlier musical influences does it draw upon? What do you notice about dynamics (how loud or soft the music is) during the performance? How would you describe the vocals?

Paragraph 2: What does the music mean?

What are these songs about? What are the main themes? Why do you think the songs were written? What general ideas and outlook are they trying to express? How does the way the performers look and behave help convey these messages?

Paragraph 3: Describe your reaction to the music

How effective do you find the songs and performances? Do they succeed in conveying their ideas to the audience? Which groups of people do you think would find this music most meaningful? Do you think “Grunge” is a fair description of what you have seen and heard?
